

Earth Day visit to San Clemente Dam

Monterey County Herald Monterey County Herald

Posted:

MontereyHerald.com

---

The San Clemente Dam, owned by California American Water, in Carmel Valley, is slated for removal this summer in what officials call the largest dam removal project in California history. The Carmel River will have to be rerouted as part of the plan, and Cal Am will transfer 928 acres to the Bureau of Land Management.